MINARAT AT KATSINA

This is a tower used during the war to see enemies from a far.
The guards stayed in and looked through holes.
Sarkin Zazzau: Aliyu Dan Sidi, 1st Emir of Zaria installed by British High Commissioner, Lord Lugard in 1902.
1st Car Used by Sir Hanns Vischer, 1st Director of Education, 1914
THE LATE EMIR OF BORGU
MALLAM MUHAMMADU SANI
1961 A.D.
SIR. PEREY GIROWAD
1908 - 1909
The late Emir of Katagum Abdalladur III son of Mahamadu.

This picture was taken in 1936.
Hans Vischer, known as "Danhausen" First Director of Education in the North in "Gidan Dan Hauwa". The name given to his school. 1910 to 1919.
MOHAMMADU DIKKO
EMIR OF KATSINA
(1906 - 1944)
J. B. (Jackie) Gott
Deputy Director of Education, Northern Nigeria
1944-1950
ABOVE: The Central Bank Notes. The issues of 1965 are on the left and those of 1968 are on the right.

OVERLEAF: An array of paper money from WACB (1946) to the Naira (20 December 1976).
LORD LUGARD  P.C., G.C.M.G., C.B., D.S.O.
1858-1945

Lord Lugard was a great British Administrator. Born in 1858, he became a soldier when he was twenty, and served in many countries. He went to Uganda and explored a large area of that country. On his first visit to Nigeria, Lugard went to Bornu in 1894 in the service of the Royal Niger Company. He secured treaties with the Kings and Chiefs and raised a local force to protect the country. In August 1897 he founded the West African Frontier Force and commanded it until 1899, when he became the first High Commissioner for the Northern Protectorate of Nigeria.

In 1912 he negotiated the amalgamation of the Northern and Southern Protectorates, which in January 1914 became one country, Nigeria. Lugard was the first Governor-General.

He guided the affairs of Nigeria until retiring in 1919. Then for fourteen years as British Member of the League of Nations Mandate Commission, he gave further great services to the British Empire. His book ‘The Dual Mandate’ dealing with the duties of European powers in Tropical Africa was acclaimed a masterpiece. Throughout his life Lord Lugard retained a strong and deep affection for Nigeria and all Nigerians.